

As a K-Love listener, I find that family oriented music is essential in helping our youth stay clear of dark and unhealthy influences heard on most other radio stations. It would be of a terrific lose to me, my family, and many friends to lose K-Love, and a detriment to our youth as a whole.